

Pain Pain

A A9 D A2 D E A E
 Pain, pain go away—Come back another day
 A A9 D A2 D E DE A
 Give me just a little break—From this constant heartache

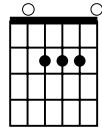

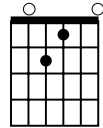

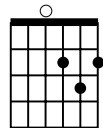

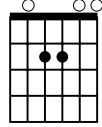

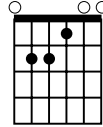

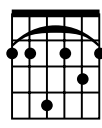

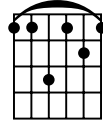

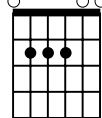

A F#m Bm7 E
 Maybe you can help me, I've done everything I could
 A F#m Bm7 E
 I went to see my doctor and he got me feelin' good
 D C#m7 Bm7 E D E A - E
 I took the pills he gave me, but I only wanted more
 A E D E Bm7 E A
 I ended up in rehab when they found me on the floor...
 E
 singing...

A A9 D A2 D E A E
 Pain, pain go away—Come back another day
 A A9 D A2 D E DE A
 Give me just a little break—From this constant heartache

A F#m Bm7 E
 While I was still in rehab I went to therapy
 A F#m Bm7 E
 The group that I encountered said it was plain to see
 D C#m7 Bm7 E D E A E
 They felt that what I needed so that I could be pain free
 A E D E Bm7 E A
 Was to get in touch with the little child that lives inside of me...
 E
 I'm still singing...

A A9 D A2 D E A E
 Pain, pain go away—Come back another day
 A A9 D A2 D E DE A
 Give me just a little break—From this constant heartache

A F#m Bm7 E
 My sister Suzy said she'd found the answer in New Age
A F#m Bm7 E
 So, we visited the ashram and decided that we'd stay
D C#m7 Bm7 E D E A E
 We chanted and we changed our names to Star and Harmony
A E D E Bm7 E A
 I almost reached Nirvana till they caught me eating meat...
E
 It happens...

 Pain, pain go away—Come back another day
A A9 D A2 D E D E A
 Give me just a little break—From this constant heartache

A F#m Bm7 E
 Surely I'd find comfort in the chapel down the street
A F#m Bm7 E
 I stepped inside that little booth and confessed all to the priest
D C#m7 Bm7 E D E A E
 He said that I could save my soul if I would count these beads
A E D E Bm7 E A
 And do a hundred hail Mary's every day this week...
E
 I just keep singing...

A A9 D A2 D E A E
 Pain, pain go away—Come back another day
A A9 D A2 D E D E A
 Give me just a little break—From this constant heartache

A F#m Bm7 E
 I got so very lonely, that I went down to a bar
A F#m Bm7 E
 For fifty bucks this lady said that I could drive her car
D C#m7 Bm7 E D E A E
 She took me for a ride that night that made my ol' head spin
A E D E Bm7 E A E
 I woke up feeling empty and that pain was back again...Ohhh...

A A9 D A2 D E A E

Pain, pain go away—Come back another day

A A9 D A2 D E DE A

Give me just a little break—From this constant heartache

A F#m Bm7 Esus - E

I decided I would end it all, I put a pistol to my head

A F#m Bm7 Esus - E

I said, God if you are really there, I hope you understand

D C#m7 Bm7 E D E A E

And if you can believe it, right then I heard God sing

A E D E Bm7 E A E

The melody you'll recognize, but the meaning has all changed:

He sang

A A9 D A2 D E A E

Pain, pain go away—you served your purpose for today

A A9 D A2

You brought this one here to this place—

D E D E A

So he could know my love and grace
